

Old North State Council, BSA Financial Assistance for Membership Registration

- 1. A scholarship award will pay for one-third of the yearly registration fee in a pack, troop, crew, or ship.
- A Scout's parents/caretakers must provide income and employer information on all scholarship requests. The reason for the scholarship may be one of the following: single-parent family with limited income, medical hardship with limited income, income hardship, multiple youth from the same family household joining which presents a financial hardship to registration in a unit.
- The unit and the unit's sponsoring organization should also provide financial support for camperships.
- A Scout is thrifty! Aside from an extreme limitation .The Scout will sell Trails End Popcorn, sell camp cards, or participate in another unit fundraiser to help provide a portion of their yearly registration fee.
- The Scout and a parent or guardian must select one of the options below and obtain the approval of the Cubmaster, Scoutmaster, Crew Advisor, Ship Skipper. All letters or statements should be attached to the application.
 - Documentation from the school district's nutrition department that demonstrates the Scout qualifies for free/reduced meals.
 - A signed statement from Scout's parent/caretaker's employer or the family's minister that the Scout's parents/caretakers have a financial or medical hardship that will prevent them from paying for one week of summer camp.
- A Scout is eligible to receive one scholarship each year.
- Scholarships may be applied toward the registration fee for one BSA unit in the area served by the Old North State Council.
- A deposit of two thirds of the amount must accompany each scholarship application at the time of submission. The deposit will be applied toward the Scout's registration fee. Ideally the scout family and unit would each provide one third of the registration fee.
- Camperships are not transferable to another Scout's registration fee.
- Forms not properly completed will be returned to the unit leader and will not be considered by the Campership Committee until completed properly.
- All scholarship requests must be properly completed and submitted to the Scout Service Center by the deadline.
- Scholarships are due to the council center each week. Please allow 7-10 business days for processing.
